- Lay Dean's Notices.

- Secondary School Chaplain

Wendy Hester had been appointed as a chaplain to work one day a week in each of the three secondary schools in the Deanery, King Arthur's in Wincanton, Ansford Academy and Sexey's School, Bruton. Wendy started work the previous week, so please pray for her and the work in the schools. It was hoped that Wendy would be able to come to a Deanery Synod meeting the following year.

- Diocesan Prayer Calendar

It was Bruton & Cary Deanery's turn to provide prayers for the Diocesan Prayer Calendar the previous month. Thank you to Marion Clutterbuck from Six Pilgrims who took that on.

- Greater Chapter Lunch

The previous Friday the Deanery had put on a lunch for the Retired Clergy and Readers who had been helping out with services during the vacancies over the previous year. Thanks were due to Alison Drake, Deanery Secretary, to Jane Jeanes and to Jeannie Stevens from Templecombe who did the cooking and provided an excellent meal that was much appreciated.

- Deanery Secretary

Alison Drake was not at the meeting as she was caring for her father. Thanks were given to Jeremy Pratt for taking the minutes. Alison has had to stand down as Deanery Secretary because of her family commitments so there was a vacancy for a Secretary.

- Clergy Vacancies

- Alham Vale

Revd Helen Drever has been appointed as Vicar of the Alham Vale benefice and would be licensed on Thursday 23rd January. Helen was currently a Curate at Crediton in Devon.

- ii) Wincanton and Pen Selwood
Revd Alison Way had been appointed as Rector of the Wincanton and Pen Selwood benefices and would be licensed on Sunday 23rd February. Alison was currently Vicar of South Nutfield in Southwark Diocese.
- iii) Cam Vale
Cam Vale was currently advertising again with a deadline at the end of November and hopefully interviews in January.
- iv) Bruton, Brewham, Pitcombe and Shepton Montague
Revd Justin Bailey had retired and the benefice of Bruton, Brewham, Pitcombe and Shepton Montague had just begun the appointment process.
- v) Castle Cary and Ansford
It was good to have Revd Liz Mortimer back as Area Dean after her Sabbatical. However, this would be her last Synod meeting as Area Dean as she had been appointed to Christ Church with St Mary's, Frome and would be leaving in January. While this was good news for Frome, it wasn't such good news for this Deanery.

On the question (on slide 5) of whether to sell the long-disused church to the Imam of the local Muslim community, 26 people present would sell to the Imam, 8 people would do something else.
